The mask I've been waiting for.

Minimal. Maximized.

Meet the ResMed AirFit™ F40.

ResMed

Made for you.

Designed for comfort, full face performance, and simplicity. The low-profile ResMed AirFit F40 was created with you, your therapy needs and your life in mind.

"Very comfortable and stayed in position while sleeping on my side."[1]

– AirFit F40 user

Because you deserve a good night's sleep.

A fully flexible frame that's soft on your face. A totally soft, silicone cushion and short tube that allow you to move during the night while keeping seal. Minimal design that lets you wear glasses to read or watch TV. Four quick adjustment points and magnetic clips* make it easy to use.

1. AdaptiSeal™ cushion adapts to your face to help maintain seal.
2. Magnetic clips easily snap together, making it quick to put on and off.
3. Short tube helps you sleep in any position.
4. Quick-release elbow lets you connect and disconnect to therapy quickly, even in the middle of the night.
5. QuietAir™ diffused venting creates a more peaceful bedroom.
